

Uniting Ultimo

To be named as dead when it seems that you are walking around, breathing God's good air, begs the question: What on earth does St Paul mean when he says the Ephesians were dead in their sin?

Is it a notional thing? A matter of celestial signification that is essentially meaningless to our experience?

It seems the clearest way to tell the walking dead from those who have been made alive is to observe the impact (or fruit) of their presence. Do they offer life? Or do they take life from those they are with?

The manner in which our God (who is rich in mercy) makes us alive has real impact now. It changes everything for us and for every person who comes in contact with us.

Welcome

Welcome to Ultimo Uniting's worship service. We hope that you are blessed, encouraged and challenged by your time with us. Please join us afterwards for a cuppa and a chat at a nearby cafe or the Quarry Green.
